CAOS is seeking a full time Deaf Educator to join the team in January 2018!

Carle Auditory Oral School (CAOS) is an early childhood school program located within the Carle Foundation organization. The unique learning environment serves children with hearing loss and typically developing students from age 3 through third grade. Small class sizes, typically 5 students per room, engaged families and passionate co-workers combine to create a positive and collaborative setting that provides support and learning opportunities for new staff members. Visit the school’s website: www.carleschool.org to learn more.

- Join a collaborative environment with caring co-workers committed to working together to meet child, family and program needs.
- Provide all children with hearing loss with intensive, language rich learning experiences.
- Facilitate learning and skill development across all academic, social and developmental domains.
