

Dear Soon-to-be-graduates,

Today I talked to a teacher of the deaf in Palm Beach, Florida. She explained that there are over 400 students who are deaf or hard of hearing in the Palm Beach School District. Currently the district is interviewing for seven open teacher of the deaf positions for 2017-2018. SEVEN! I don't know anything more about this district than that, but I thought some of you might be interested in inquiring. To do that, you can email Sue Alex, the DHH supervisor, and copy the teacher of the deaf named Lauren Trainor. You can refer to my having been in contact with Lauren about this.

Ms. Sue Alex: sue.alex@palmbeachschools.org

Ms. Lauren Trainor: lauren.trainor@palmbeachschools.org

<https://www.palmbeachschools.org/>

<https://www.palmbeachschools.org/ese/dhh/>

