About the Area:
In Birmingham, AL, aka “The Magic City,” there’s always something going on and plenty of fun things to do. Experience the great outdoors all within the city limits: paddle boating, zip lining and tube floating are just a few of the activities to keep you busy. Hungry? There are several award-winning neighborhood restaurants where you can enjoy some delicious southern cuisine. Are you a sports fan? Grab some boiled peanuts, a craft beer and a baseball game at Rickwood Stadium – the oldest stadium in the country. Music buff? Stroll into one of the local downtown venues to experience some unique, live performances. The list goes on and on with fabulous entertainment options, but one of the most important things to know is that Birmingham is one of the more affordable metro areas in the country, so your hard-earned dollars will go a bit further! Who doesn’t like that?!
