Linn Benton Lincoln Education Service District’s (LBL) Cascade Regional Program has recently posted an opening for a Teacher of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing for the 2018-2019 school year. LBL provides educational support programs and services to twelve constituent school districts, over 89 schools and approximately 37,000 students in Linn, Benton and Lincoln counties.

LBL is one of Oregon’s nineteen Education Service Districts created to assist school districts by providing equitable educational opportunities for all of Oregon’s public school students. A link to information from our website regarding our education agency and our twelve school districts is below:
