Located in the Hilltop and Crestmoor Neighborhood, Carson holds a unique position in the Denver Public Schools as it is home to three distinct programs: Traditional, Deaf/Hard of Hearing and Highly Gifted and Talented. While Carson has three programs, the programs work in the context of “One School, One Family, One Community” to meet unique individual student needs while also bringing students together as a community of learners. This range of programs provides Carson Elementary with a diverse student population drawn from the immediate neighborhood and the entire district. In addition to Carson’s high academic standards, parents and students value our Character Education program as a catalyst for learning life-long skills that bridge behavior expectations between home and school.

About Denver Public Schools:

Denver Public Schools is committed to meeting the educational needs of every student with great schools in every neighborhood. Our goal is to provide every child in Denver with rigorous, enriching educational opportunities from preschool through high school graduation. DPS is comprised of nearly 200 schools including traditional, magnet, charter and alternative pathways schools, with an enrollment of more than 90,000 students.

Under the leadership of Superintendent Tom Boasberg and guided by the tenets of The Denver Plan, DPS has become the fastest-growing school district in the country in terms of enrollment and the fastest-growing large school district in the state in terms of student academic growth.
