The North Carolina Department of Public Instruction is seeking applicants for a School Educator II (Working Title: Early Intervention Teacher of the Deaf) within The Early Learning Sensory Support Program for our Office of Early Learning. This program is a statewide early intervention/ educational program supporting young children with hearing and vision impairments, their families and the providers who work with them through the provision of direct instruction and consultation.

This position provides teaching sessions to infants and toddlers with hearing loss ages birth to three years and their parents and caregivers. The major duty of the position is to plan appropriate sessions to develop receptive and expressive language, social development and early literacy of the target population. Teachers follow an assessment protocol, write reports, submit service notes, and teach diagnostically to monitor progress and establish goals for language acquisition. The teacher partners with the family, other service providers and agencies to support a successful service delivery model. The role is also involved in transition to school age services by working with the local school system.
This position is Home Based and requires Wake County residency and up to 50% regional travel in Wake County and surrounding counties.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES / COMPETENCIES:
QUALIFIED APPLICANTS MUST SUBMIT AN APPLICATION THAT CLEARLY REFLECTS WORK EXPERIENCE DEMONSTRATING THE FOLLOWING:

- Knowledge of hearing loss and implications for overall development
- Knowledge of typical early childhood development and normal developmental sequence of language and communication
- Knowledge of family centered practices related to early intervention
- Knowledge of developmental delays and resulting intervention techniques
- Knowledge of family systems and how to incorporate instructional goals
- Knowledge of the North Carolina Early Intervention system
- Experience administering language and communication assessments
- Demonstrated successful teaching experience

MANAGEMENT PREFERENCES:

- Candidates who possess a Birth to Kindergarten Certification issued by the NC Dept. of Public Instruction and an Infant Toddler Credential issued through the NC Dept. of Public Health are desired.
- Professional experience working with infants and toddlers with developmental delays or medical conditions also preferred.

NECESSARY REQUIREMENTS:

- NC Teaching License in Education of the Hearing Impaired or qualifications to obtain license to teach in NC. Salary is based on experience and education of the applicant.
- Valid NC Driver's License. Out of State Applicants must have valid Driver's License and acquire NC Driver's License within 60 days of hire.

MINIMUM EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:
Bachelor's degree in Deaf Education or related area and valid teaching license in Hearing Impaired or the ability to obtain a valid teaching license.
