Job Title: Deaf Education Teacher

Reports to: School Executive Director

Salish Sea Deaf School (SSDS) is now accepting applications for teaching positions (elementary and secondary) within our rapidly growing bilingual (ASL/English), private school. Nestled in the San Juan Islands in Washington’s Pacific Northwest, this coastal/island community and school will steal your heart! This is YOUR chance as an educator to truly be an integral part in contributing to design and best practices school wide. We not only welcome but also celebrate innovative approaches to education that maximize results! “Orca Pride” abounds as students, families and staff work towards our motto of ACHIEVING MORE! Beautiful locale, staff collaboration, opportunities for workshops/training, and hands on community involvement/application of learning are just a few of the things you can look forward to enjoying when you are a part of the SSDS team!

Minimum Requirements:
- Master’s degree (MA/MS) in Deaf Education including completion of student teaching
- Washington Standard or Provisional Teaching Licensure (Or ability to obtain in reasonable timeframe)
- Fluency in expressive and receptive American Sign Language (ASL)
- Fluent communication in standard written English
- Fingerprinting and background check

Job Duties and Responsibilities:
- Develop and implement lesson plans that ensure and maximize diverse academic, language and social needs per IEP as well as Common Core State Standards.
- Write, Evaluate, and Implement IEPs for each student.
- Work positively and collaboratively with colleagues, parents, and community.
- Follow a system of continuous evaluation and data collection of student progress consistent with established instructional objectives by using a variety of assessment techniques.
